Chief Secretariat (ADW&STW) - Implementation of housing scheme - Enhancement of subsidy from Rs.5,00,000/- to Rs.5,50,000/- under the Beneficiary Led Construction component of Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban) Scheme - Orders - Issued

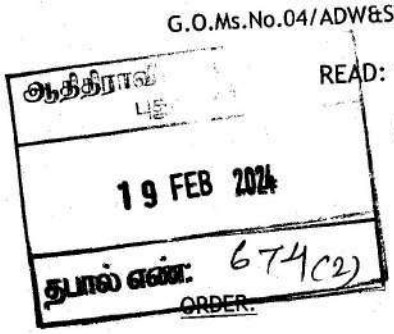
CHIEF SECRETARIAT (ADI DRAVIDAR WELFARE AND SCHEDULED TRIBES WELFARE)

G.O.Ms.No.04/ADW&STW/2024 Puducherry, dated 07/02/2024



READ: 1. G.O.Ms. No.01/2020-21/Wel(SCW) dated 02.09.2020 of the Adi-Dravidar Welfare & Scheduled Tribes Welfare Secretariat.
2. G.O. Ms. No.09/2020-21/Wel(SCW) dated 12.02.2021 of the Adi-Dravidar Welfare & Scheduled Tribes Welfare Secretariat.
3. I.D. No.17017/AWD&STW/G7/HCS/2020-21, dt.17.03.2022 of the Director, ADW&STW Department, Puducherry.

The Adi Dravidar Welfare and Scheduled Tribes Welfare Department had implemented a housing scheme viz. "Bharat Ratna Rajiv Gandhi (BRRG) Housing Scheme for grant of house construction subsidy to the homeless Scheduled Castes & Other Economically Backward Classes people at financial assistance of Rs.4,00,000/- whose annual income below than Rs.2.00 lakhs per annum.

2. Whereas, in the year 2016 the Government of India had come up with a new housing subsidy scheme "Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY) - Housing for all" which provides Rs.1,50,000/- (One lakh Fifty thousand Rupees) for each household. Accordingly, the existing state running housing subsidy scheme of BRRG has been dovetailed with the PMAY scheme with income ceiling of Rs.3.00 lakhs per annum vide G.O. read 1 above. There onwards, the beneficiaries are getting the housing subsidy of Rs.4,00,000/- under PMAY scheme where Rs.1,50,000/- is given from the central fund and the remaining Rs.2,50,000/- is given from the State fund. Further, the amount has been enhanced from 4,00,000/- to 5,00,000/- in the PMAY scheme vide G.O. read 2 above.

3. At present, under the Beneficiary Led Construction component of the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban) Scheme, the Government of India provides Central Assistance of Rs.1.50 lakhs and the Govt. of Puducherry provides State share of Rs.3.50 lakhs to each approved house in respect of the projects implemented by the Adi Dravidar Welfare & Scheduled Tribes Welfare Department and the balance cost for construction of houses has to be met out by the beneficiary themselves.

4. Whereas, the Government of Puducherry has observed that the physical progress of the houses of approved beneficiaries of the SC/STs people is poor, since the beneficiaries have to contribute nearly Rs.2.00 to Rs.3.00 lakhs more for completion of houses and they have to avail loans from private money lenders at higher interest rates and get themselves in debt trap. Several selected beneficiaries are also not willing to avail the financial assistance due to increased cost of construction. The hardship faced by the selected beneficiaries in completing their house, increasing construction costs and the financial assistance enhanced in respect of SC/ST beneficiaries have been engaging the attention of the Government.

Contd..p.2/-

5. Accordingly, sanction of the Lieutenant Governor is hereby conveyed to enhance the financial assistance for SC/ST/OEBC beneficiaries from the existing financial assistance of Rs.5.00 lakhs to Rs.5.50 lakhs under the Beneficiary Led Construction component of the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban) Scheme by enhancing the existing state share of Rs.3.50 lakhs to Rs.4.00 lakhs and the central assistance of Rs.1.50 lakhs shall exist as the same. The enhanced financial assistance is applicable to beneficiaries of the ongoing and new projects being implemented by the Adi-Dravidar Welfare & Scheduled Tribes Welfare Department under PMAY(U) scheme. The quantum of financial assistance of Rs.5.50 lakhs will be in 3 installments through ABT/DBT mode as detailed below:-

Installment	Level	Central share in Cash (Rs.)	State share in Cash (Rs.)	Total (Rs.)
I	Foundation level	60,000	1,60,000	2,20,000
II	Completion of lintel	60,000	1,60,000	2,20,000
III	Upon house completion	30,000	80,000	1,10,000
Total		1,50,000	4,00,000	5,50,000

6. However, other terms and conditions as stipulated in the G.O. vide read 2 above shall remain unchanged.

7. The enhanced rate of financial assistance shall be extended to 244 beneficiaries for 2nd instalment and 141 beneficiaries for 3rd instalment for the current financial year who have been considered under the existing PMAY - (Urban) housing subsidy scheme.

8. The rest of the beneficiaries will be eligible for subsidy in the next financial year 2024-25.

9. This issues with the concurrence of the Finance Department, Puducherry vide their I.D.No.30677/FC/FD/F5/A1/2023-24 dated 05.01.2024.

Kind attention is invited to the letter cited on the subject mentioned above.

2. Lieutenant Governor had an discussion with the Secretary(Welfare) alongwith the Director, Health & Family Welfare Services in this connection. During the discussion, the Lieutenant Governor desired that atleast once, the applicant should appear before the Medical Board, so as to determine nature of illness and the time it takes for the patient to get fully treated. Once it is ascertained by the Medical Board, and the time is determined further clearance could be given by the local Resident Medical Officer. While offering his views in this regard, the Director, Directorate of Health & Family Welfare Services, has informed that during the ,meeting held with the Medical Officers of the Pondicherry and outlying regions it was decided that it may not be possible to hold Medical Board meeting in the outlying region and in rural areas. As far as Pondicherry region for issue of prolonged illness certificate, the person will appear before the Medical Board by following the usual procedure as is being presently followed. In respect of the outlying region of Karaikal, Mahe and Yanam, it was felt that the patient suffering from prolonged illness who desires a certificate to the Adidravidar Welfare Department can be referred to the Resident Medical Officer/Assistant Director of the respective regional hospitals viz., Government Hospital of the region concerned. The Assistant Director/Resident Medical Officer will refer the patients to the concerned specialist and based on the opinion issued by the Specialists, the Medical Certificate can be issued by the Resident Medical Officer concerned. If the above suggestion is approved,the Health Department will issue suitable instruction to the officers concerned. The copy of the letter received in this regard from the Director, Health & Family Welfare Services is also enclosed herewith.

3. In view of the above, the Director, Adidravidar Welfare Department is requested to offer his comments/views in this regard immediately for taking further action.

UNION TERRITORY OF PONDICHERRY
LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITY
STATE AUTHORITY

No. 113/2005-UTPLSA.
Pondicherry, the 16th February 2005.

NOTIFICATION

Whereas the Under Secretary, National Legal Services Authority, New Delhi in his letter, dated 24-1-2005 has forwarded a copy of the model scheme for "Legal Aid Counsel" for implementation in terms of section 12(g) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987;

Whereupon, this Authority, after going through it, has decided to implement the scheme which is given below :

Model scheme for "Legal Aid Counsel" in all the Courts of Magistrates

According to section 12 (g) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 (as amended in 1994), any person in custody, including custody in a protective home or in juvenile home or in psychiatric hospital or psychiatric nursing home, is entitled to legal services for filing or defending a case. A large number of under-trial prisoners who are not in a position to engage lawyers for defending them, feel handicapped in their defence and remain incarcerated for long periods. Therefore, His Lordship Hon'ble Dr. Justice, A.S. Anand, Judge, Supreme Court of India and Executive Chairman, National Legal Services Authority has invited suggestions/views from all the Chief Justices of the High Courts (Patrons-in-Chief of State Legal Services Authorities) on a Scheme for Legal Aid and Assistance to the Prisoners in Custody. His Lordship has pointed out that Legal Aid Counsel may be attached to all the Courts of Magistrates in the country who should give legal assistance to the persons in custody, for opposing remand applications, securing orders for bail and moving miscellaneous applications as may be required. According to His Lordship, Legal Aid Counsel should be under an obligation to remain present in the Court assigned to him during the remand hour and such other hours as may be directed by the Court. Thereafter when a challan is filed against the accused in custody in the Court assigned to such Advocate, the case should be entrusted to him for defence also. The appeals or revisions arising out of such challans should also be ordinarily entrusted to him. His Lordship is of the view that this system can go a long way in providing effective and meaningful legal assistance to under-trial prisoners, who feel handicapped in their defence on account of lack of resources or other disabilities and cannot engage a Counsel to defend them. His Lordship has desired that this scheme be followed through out the country.

2. The scheme lays emphasis for legal aid and assistance to the persons in custody at the following three stages:–

(a) When in custody during investigation of the cases and need legal assistance for getting released on bail and opposing remand applications;

(b) Legal assistance during trial for defence;

(c) Legal assistance for preferring appeals or revisions in case of adverse orders.

3. In terms of the directions issued by His Lordship, a model scheme has been formulated which may be adopted by the States with suitable modifications as required under the prevailing circumstances and needs of the respective States as under:—

(i) The first step should be to identify all the Courts of Magistrates in each District for attaching Legal Aid Counsel. In case the work-load in a particular Court or Courts is too little, one Legal Aid Counsel may be attached to two Courts even.

(ii) State Legal Services Authority or District Legal Services Authority to which the implementation of the scheme is entrusted, may prepare a panel of Legal Aid Counsel preferably with a minimum standing of five years on criminal side. The Advocates from this panel may be attached to the Courts of Magistrates and may be called "Legal Aid Counsel".

(iii) The remuneration and fee to be paid to Legal Aid Counsel may be determined by State Legal Services Authority or District Legal Services Authority, as the case may be. The remuneration/ fee may be fixed under the following counts:—

(a) for attending the Court during remand hour every day (the remuneration for attending the Court during remand hour may be fixed at Rs. 500 per month or more depending upon the work-load);

(b) fee schedule for acting as Defence Counsel for aided persons may be drawn. It may be on the basis of effective hearings in warrant as well as summon trial cases with a ceiling of maximum fee;

(c) fixed fee with incidental expenditure for filing and contesting an appeal or revision. The appeals and revisions may be permitted to be filed with the approval of the Member–Secretary of the State Legal Services Authority or Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, as the case may be;

(All payments to Legal Aid Counsel may be made after obtaining certificates from the concerned Judicial Officers regarding attendance of the Counsel at the time of remand or conduct of trial/appeal/ revision).

(iv) Name and address of the Legal Aid Counsel may be displayed outside the Court to which he is attached with requisite information as to who are eligible persons under the Legal Services Authorities Act and no payment is required to be made by them to Legal Aid Counsel (in case of any complaint against a Legal Aid Counsel regarding demand of fee or any other charges from an aided person, prompt action by way of removal of his name from the panel may be taken).

(v) The scheme of Legal Aid Counsel may be given wide publicity in the State. Hoardings in the Police Stations and Jails may be affixed.

(vi) The scheme can be more effectively implemented if printed proformas of appointment letters to be issued to Legal Aid Counsel are handed over to the Courts of Magistrates with a request to issue the same in favour of the Legal Aid Counsel who takes over the defence of any person in custody being produced before the Court. On the basis of this appointment letter legal aid functionaries to issue required order allocating that case to Legal Aid Counsel to facilitate settlement of bills.

(vii) to ensure that the Legal Aid Counsel remains present in the Court during remand hour or any other hour of the day as directed by the Court. Legal aid functionaries may insist for an attendance certificate issued by the Court to the Legal Aid Counsel before making him payment for remand hour.

(viii) Certificates of merit/awards may be given to those Legal Aid Counsel whose performance is found to be outstanding.

G. PATRIC,
District Judge,
Member-Secretary.
